Tell us about your idea

Please state your indicator.

Please choose the best sentence to describe your indicator:

- The indicator measures the existence or contents of a “paper document” such as a law, policy, strategy, guidelines, etc. (e.g. the government is required by law to make information on its operation proactively available to the public)
- The indicator measures the existence of specific features of an institution, system, procedure, or process. (e.g. there is a dedicated website where the government makes information on its operations available to the public)
- The indicator measures the use or implementation of a law, policy, strategy, guidelines, system, procedures, process, etc. (e.g. # of data sets that the government publishes online)
- The indicator measures the functioning or performance of a law, policy, strategy, guidelines, system, procedures, process, etc. (e.g. # of visits or downloads of information from the government’s open data portal)

What public management system or cross-cutting theme does your indicator address? (select all that apply)

- Public financial management
- Procurement
- Tax administration
- Public administration and civil service
- Public information systems
- Other (please describe in the space below)
- Transparency
- Accountability
- Participation

If you selected other, please describe what aspect of public management your indicator addresses.

How would you measure the indicator?

What type of data will you collect and how will you collect it?

Is any of the data/information required for the indicator available online? (select one)

- Yes
- No
- Unsure/ Don't know

Has your indicator already been collected in one or more countries? (select one)

- Yes
- No
- Unsure/ Don't know

If yes, please list the countries and the years for which it was collected. If you are unsure, please explain.

How does your indicator improve upon existing measures? (e.g. it fills in a gap in existing measures, it uses a more robust methodology for an existing indicator...)

Please describe how your indicator links to outcomes. Some examples of outcomes include better service delivery, improved fiscal stability, or higher levels of trust in government. Please cite and explain any empirical evidence of this link.

Which actors could make changes that would impact the indicator? (select all that apply)

- Legislature
- Executive office
- Ministry
- Agency
- Senior-level management
- Government official
- Other

If other, please describe
